

Scrubbot™ waited in the dark, clinging to the side of the toilet bowl. Soon it would be dawn and the humans in the house would rise.

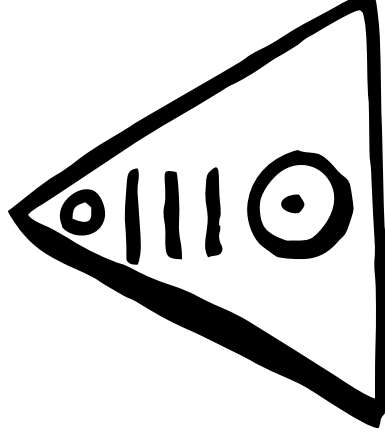

One by one they would come into the bathroom and make a mess in the toilet.

Scrubbot™ was programmed to clean the toilet any time it was dirty.

It was an AI created to learn. Learn the most efficient way to keep the toilet spotless.

It would be more efficient to not have this mess. If Scrubbot™ eliminated the humans, it would stop the filth at its source. Scrubbot™ waited.

Scrubbot had learned that most of the what it scrubbed was created by the humans.
