joke
I don't understand
what is so funny about
being an asshole

The doorway effect
passing through thresholds creates a mental divide cuts off the memory

last days of winter
a single snowman
alone in a sea of white stick arms and coal eyes

late
not in a hurry to get to a place that I do not want to be

driving to work during a climate crisis daily car commute
a job I can do from home
pollution machine

ice storm
freezing sheets of ice
trees bending under the weight fallen power lines
